

5 BENEFITS OF GROUP THERAPY

1. Provides a more natural and realistic setting to practise therapy goals.
2. Children learn that they are not alone by being around children with similar skills.
3. Children can find support and confidence newfound friendships.
4. Parents can meet which can lead to peer support and information sharing.
5. It is a cost-effective way to have an intensive period of therapy.

