

When should my child learn to make each speech sound?

Children develop speech gradually over the first 8 years of their lives. The images below outline when the majority of children learn to make each consonant sound in Australian English.

0-3 years

4 years

5+ years

small TALK
speech therapy